Naples, May 2.

THEIR Majesties and the young Royal Family continue to enjoy perfect Health at Portici, where the Court was Yesterday very brilliant, on Occasion of its being the Anniversary of the Birth of the Duke of Calabria, and of the Infant Duke of Parma. We learn by an Express from Gallipoli, that a large Algerine Corsair, of 28 Guns, and 230 Men, was taken, after an obstinate Engagement, on the 15th of last Month, by two of our armed Xebecks, off Cape Mezzo. This News was so agreeable to the King, and the whole Court, that his Majesty, upon Advice of it, immediately ordered both the Commanders of those Xebecks to be preferred for their Bravery.

Rome, May 6. The Court having received Advice, that several Barbary Corsairs have of late appeared upon the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State, and taken a Neapolitan Bark off Fiumicino, Orders have been dispatched for the Gallies at Civita Vecchia to put to Sea immediately in Quest of them. By Advices from Constantinople we learn, that notwithstanding the Grand Signor continues to persist invariably in the Resolution of living in perfect Friendship with all the Christian Powers, yet he intends shortly to give Directions for putting the Places he possesses in Dalmatia in a proper State of Defence. The same Advices add, that the City of Constantinople is now almost as populous as it was before the late Plague, occasioned by the vast Numbers of Workmen of all Sorts who have been sent here by the Beglerbegs of the several Provinces, according to the Orders they received some Time ago from the Grand Vizier for that Purpose.

Stockholm, May 10. The Court goes out of Mourning on Sunday next for the late King. The States of this Kingdom still continue their Assembly, but no late Resolutions have been made publick. 'Tis said they are upon the Point of separating, and that the King will soon after set out on a Tour to several of our Provinces, in order to review the Troops.

Copenhagen, May 12. The King has caused a Placard to be published, by which his Majesty acquaints his Subjects, that his Ministers Plenipotentiary have concluded two Treaties of Peace, one on the 18th of December last with the Regency of Tunis, and the other on the 22d of January with the Bey of Tripoly, by which a free Navigation is secured for our Ships trading in the Mediterranean Sea. These Treaties are to be made publick as soon as the new Regulation for granting Passes can be adjusted. On Friday last Count Rosenberg, Minister from their Imperial Majesties to this Court, received an Express from Vienna with Dispatches of great Importance, which he immediately communicated to Baron Bernsdorff, Minister of the Department for Foreign Affairs.

Munich, May 12. On Wednesday Morning last the Elector our Sovereign, accompanied by several General Officers, and the principal Lords of his Court, went to the Plain of Haidhausen, and reviewed the Regiments quartered in this Neighbourhood, who went through their Exercise extremely well, and made a very fine Appearance. His Electoral Highness expressed great Satisfaction on that Occasion. This Evening their Electoral Highnesses propose going to Nymphenbourg for a Fortnight or three Weeks, to which Place the Empress Dowager and the whole Court are to set out To-morrow.

Vienna, May 13. This Being the Anniversary of her Imperial Majesty's Birth-Day, the same was celebrated at Schonbrun with great Magnificence. A Courier is arrived here from Hanover with Dispatches of great Importance; and 'tis said an extraordinary Council is summoned for To-morrow on that Occasion.

Ratisbon, May 14. The Diet of the Empire is adjourned till after Whitsuntide. Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Empress Queen's Birth-Day, the Prince of Tour Taxis gave a grand Entertainment to all the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, on that Occasion.

Dresden, May 15. Prince Charles-Christian is so well recovered of the Small Pox as to be able to appear again in Publick. To-morrow their Majesties set out for Moritzbourg, to take the Diversion of Hunting. 'Tis said Count Rapp will shortly be sent to Hanover, in order to execute a private Commission.

Hambourg, May 23. Prince Augustus, the present Bishop of Lubeck, arrived here last Saturday from his Residence of Eutin, and proposes to pass some Weeks in Hambourg, with his Mother the Dutchess Dowager of Holstein.

Hague, May 25. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland, who assembled Yesterday, have this Day re-assumed their Deliberations. M. Gerlacius took his Seat To-day in the Chamber of Accompts of the Generality, on the Part of the Province of Groningen; and at the same Time M. Yffelstein took the usual Oaths before the Council of State to qualify himself for Colonel Commandant of the Regiment of Foot of Lieutenant General Evertzen, as did likewise M. Cullen, in Quality of Titular Colonel, to which they were lately preferred by her Royal Highness the Princess Governante. M. Hop Minister from this Republick to the Court of Great Britain, set out this Morning for Hanover.

IN the Beginning of last November, the Right Honourable the Lord Falkland, being at Montauban in France, visited an English Gentleman there, who was thought to be expiring of a Fever, his Physicians and Friends being destitute of all Hopes of his Recovery. He had taken a great Quantity of the Bark, which, far from doing him Service, appeared to be very prejudicial to him. At this Time he rattled in the Throat, was very much delirious and insensible, and excessively hot and low. At Seven in the Morning the Lord Falkland gave him half a Paper of Dr. James's Fever Powder, which made him sweat profusely. Two Hours after he took another half Paper, in Consequence of which, he brought up a large Mouthful of very black Bile, had some Stools, and sweated plentifully. Betwixt Twelve and One he sat up, and spoke, and became sensible. At Three he took a whole Paper, which was repeated at proper Intervals, according to the printed Directions. In Consequence of this he perfectly recovered from his Disorder, and, in a few Days, regained his Strength. The Right Honourable the Lord Falkland, esteeming this more a publick than a private Concern, has ordered it to be published for the Advantage of Mankind.

These Powders are sealed with a Serpent winding round a Branch of Lawrel; and round the Seal these Words, By the King's Patent; and are sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London. Price 2s. 6d. the two Doses.
